The Department of Mathematics at the University of Arkansas is glad to announce the 24th edition of the ARKANSAS SPRING LECTURE SERIES.

The conference will be held in the Continuing Education Building of the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, March 2-4, 2000.

This year's main speaker is Professor CARLOS KENIG of the University of Chicago. Professor Kenig will present five lectures on

"RECENT PROGRESS IN THE STUDY OF HARMONIC MEASURE FROM A GEOMETRIC AND AN ANALYTIC POINT OF VIEW"

The following mathematicians will present one-hour talks:

R. Brown (U. Kentucky-Lexington)
S. Hofmann (U. Missouri-Columbia)
M. Mitrea (U. Missouri-Columbia)
J. Pipher (Brown U.)
M. Safonov (U. Minnesota)
Z. Shen (U. Kentucky-Lexington)
T. Toro (U. Washington-Seattle)
G. Verchota (Syracuse U.)
J. Verdera (Universitat Autonoma de Barcelona, Spain)
Y. Yuan (U. Texas-Austin)

Information regarding travel and lodging can be found at the conference web-site:

http://www.uark.edu/depts/mathinfo/

For further information please contact the organizers:

Luca Capogna
Loredana Lanzani
Itrel Monroe

capogna@lagrange.uark.edu
lanzani@caccioppoli.uark.edu
imonroe@comp.uark.edu