Matrix Theory
A Writing Intensive Course
Syllabus-First day information

Professor: Hema Srinivasan
Office: 311 Math. Sciences., Phone: 882-1452
Office Hours: 11:00-12:00 pm on MW and by appointment.
Class time and place: MWF 10:00-10:50 am in A&S 308

We will cover chapters 1 through 6 of the text with varying degree emphasis on different sections.

There will be two in class exams and a comprehensive final. There will be about 5-7 take home assignments and at least 2 of these will have rewrite component. That is, you will have to revise the assignment after the first draft. More homework problems will be suggested but not collected or graded.

Final exam as per schedule is on
Grading Scheme:
Exams. 2 x 100 = 200
Assignments = 120
Final = 180
Total = 500
Tentative exam dates:
Exam 1: February 10
Exam II: March 31
Web page with information about the course:
http://www.math.missouri.edu/ srinivasan
http://www.math.missouri.edu/ hema
http://www.math.missouri.edu/courses/math-courses/math4140-hw.html

Make-ups for exams will be given only under exceptional circumstances.

If you need accommodations because of a disability, if you have emergency medical information to share with me, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please inform me immediately (after class). To request academic accommodations students must also register with Disability Services at A038 Brady Commons, 882-4696 or at http://web.missouri.edu/ accesscm

Prerequisites: One of 2300 or 2320 or 2120 or 2340.
If your MU records do not show that you satisfy the prerequisites, you may be automatically dropped by the Mathematics department from the course after the last day to add/drop. If you are not sure about your prerequisites, please check with the math office as soon as possible. It is your responsibility to provide documentation that you have the prerequisites and ensure that the documentation is entered in the MU System.