Characteristic independence of Betti numbers

Abstract: I will discuss the dependence of graded Betti numbers of monomial ideals on the characteristic of the base field. I will study a number of examples and provide classes of graphs that have characteristic independent Betti numbers, while showing other combinatorially restricted classes still include graphs with characteristic dependent Betti numbers. This is joint work with Manoj Kumini.